

Very busy week - fine

CARPENTERS' HALL
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

was built in 1770 by The Carpenters' Company, founded in 1724 by a group of master carpenters, as their hall.

From September 5, 1774, on, the First Continental Congress met here almost daily. Because of its historic importance, Carpenters' Company in 1857 resolved to dedicate this hall as a patriotic shrine.

Seen May 28

Dear Mom & Dad,

It is sunny & warm in Philly and a good day to visit since many people have left town.

The historic area is with in walking ~~distance~~. Driving up to Boston this 15 afternoon. Fine

Art Color Card
Distributors - Cherry Hill, N.J.
Phila. Phone MA 7-3022

1972

EISENHOWER-USA

Mr. & Mrs. E. Carlson

2825-98th. N.E.

Bellevue, Wash.

98004